

YOUR MISSION - SHOULD YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT IT...

Welcome to the IMF
(Impossible Mission Force)
Mission Impossible Possible - Week One
1 Corinthians 15:58

6.15.25

As followers of Christ, we are invited to join the Impossible Mission Force (IMF) – a divine calling to stand firm in our faith and work diligently for the Lord.

This 7-day study guide, based on 1 Corinthians 15:58, will challenge and inspire you to embrace your mission and equip you to live out your calling with purpose.

Here is what you will need to be successful on this mission this week.

First – A time each day to spend alone with God

Second – A Bible that you can use

Third – A Journal you can jot down thoughts

Fourth – A pen, for the third item above

Fifth – A willingness to grow

Get ready – the Impossible Mission begins and you are a part of the Impossible Mission Force!

DAILY DEVOTIONAL MISSION THOUGHTS

Day 1: Your Calling

Devotional Thought: Each of us has been called by God to fulfill a unique purpose in His kingdom. Just as secret agents are chosen for their specific talents, you have been selected to serve in His Impossible Mission Force. Embrace your identity in Christ and the mission He has for you.

Journal Question: What specific calling do you believe God has placed on your life?

Day 2: Standing Firm

Devotional Thought: In a world filled with distractions and challenges, standing firm in faith requires intentionality.

When we are grounded in God's Word and trust in His promises, we can withstand any opposition we may face.

Journal Question: What are some areas in your life where you need to stand firm in your faith?

Day 3: Fully Committed

Devotional Thought: Being part of the IMF means giving yourself fully to the work of the Lord. This commitment involves your time, talents, and treasures.

Reflect on how you can wholeheartedly dedicate yourself to God's mission.

Journal Question: What steps can you take this week to demonstrate your commitment to God's work?

Day 4: The Value of Your Labor

Devotional Thought: Often, it may seem like our efforts are in vain, especially when we don't see immediate results.

However, 1 Corinthians 15:58 reminds us that our labor in the Lord is never in vain. Trust that God is at work even when you can't see it.

Journal Question(s): Can you recall a time when you felt discouraged in your service? How did God encourage you to keep going?

Day 5: Empowered by the Spirit

Devotional Thought: We are not alone in our mission.

The Holy Spirit empowers us to fulfill our calling.

Lean into His guidance and strength as you navigate the challenges of living out your faith.

Journal Question: How can you better rely on the Holy Spirit in your daily life and mission?

Day 6: Impacting Others

Devotional Thought: Your mission has a ripple effect.

The way you live out your faith can inspire and impact those around you.

Be intentional in sharing the love of Christ with others and watch how God uses your life to make a difference.

Journal Question(s): Who in your life needs encouragement to stand firm in their faith? How can you support them?

Day 7: Reflect and Recharge

Devotional Thought: At the end of the week, take time to reflect on your journey.

God calls us not only to action but also to rest in Him.

Recharge your spirit and seek His guidance for the next steps in your mission.

Journal Question: What have you learned about your mission this week, and how will you apply it moving forward?

As you complete this study guide, remember that you are a vital part of God's Impossible Mission Force.

Embrace your calling, stand firm, and commit to the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is significant and impactful.

May your mission be filled with purpose and joy as you serve Him wholeheartedly!

Here is a bonus for you – Pastor Jeff said the following in celebration worship today. This Mission Moments are reminders that keep us moving forward in the mission Jesus has called us to take.

"Most people avoid the impossible. A few are called to stare it down."

"The narrow road has fewer footprints, but God walks every step with you."

"Being one of a few makes you dangerous to the enemy."
