Under Cover

Umbrella-ievably excited about living for God

In Session Three of our Under Cover series we covered the topic of Umbrella Laws. In Ephesians 1:18-21, the Apostle Paul writes about the transformative power of knowing God. This passage encourages believers to understand their hope, inheritance, and divine power, all of which act as an "umbrella" over our lives, offering protection and guidance. Yes, they protect us from the HELLEMENTS

Key Points From the Bible Study for Your Review

1. The Umbrella of Hope:

Hope is a confident expectation of good. It acts as a protective covering that helps us endure life's storms.

Biblical Insight: Hope anchors our souls, providing stability amidst uncertainty (Hebrews 6:19).

2. The Umbrella of Inheritance:

As believers, we inherit spiritual riches and blessings from God, which empower us to live victoriously.

Biblical Insight: We are co-heirs with Christ (Romans 8:17), meaning the riches of His grace and promises are available to us.

3. The Umbrella of Power:

God's power is not just a concept; it is a tangible force that we can access through faith, enabling us to overcome challenges.

Biblical Insight: The same power that raised Christ from the dead is at work in us (Ephesians 1:20-21).

Now, find a quiet place to reflect. Grab your Bible, a journal, and a pen - get ready to set aside a few minutes each day and dig a little bit deeper

Day 1: Understanding Hope

Reflect on a recent challenge you faced. How did your hope in God help you through it?

Journal about a time when you felt hopeless.

What could you have done differently to tap into God's hope?

Day 2: Claiming Your Inheritance

What do you feel God has promised you as part of your spiritual inheritance?

Write about a blessing you often overlook.

How can you begin to claim it in your daily life?

Day 3: Tapping into Divine Power

Think about a persistent struggle in your life. How can you invite God's power into this situation?

Reflect on a time when you felt empowered by your faith.

What did that look like, and how can you replicate it?

Day 4: Dancing in the Rain

How can you shift your perspective to see challenges as opportunities for growth?

Write about a "storm" you're currently experiencing.

What steps can you take to embrace hope during this time?

Day 5: The Buffet of Blessings

Consider the blessings that God has provided in your life.

Which ones do you often take for granted? (Be extremely honest – this is between you and God)

List three specific ways you can actively appreciate your spiritual inheritance this week.

Day 6: Building with God's Power

Identify an area in your life where you feel you are trying to do things on your own.

What would it look like to invite God into that process?

Reflect on a time when you saw God's power work through you.

How did it change your circumstances?

Day 7: Sharing Your Umbrella

Think about someone in your life who may be struggling.

How can you share the umbrellas of hope, inheritance, and power with them?

Write a letter or a note to this person, encouraging them and sharing the insights you've gained from this week's study.

Wrap it all up

As you reflect on these themes throughout the week, remember that living under God's authority is a daily choice.

Embrace the hope, inheritance, and power that are yours in Christ, and let them guide you in every aspect of your life.

Enjoy the freedom that comes when you live Under Cover!
